

DENTAL INFORMATION RESOURCES

For information and opinions on dental and supportive healthcare, the following resources are available. These organizations and Websites will have articles, opinions, books, products, or services. This information should not be considered a complete list, or absolute in content, and is offered only to enable you to make an informed decision. This information is provided for educational purposes only, and should not be considered a recommendation for any particular treatment, product, or philosophy. You have the sole responsibility to examine the benefits and risks of available options and decide what treatment, if any, is to be rendered. The First Amendment of the U.S. Constitution grants the right to discuss openly and freely all matters of public concern, and to express viewpoints no matter how controversial or unaccepted they may be. If you know of other resources or find errors in this handout, please contact me.
